Highest Market Price paid for Country Produce.

The doors of Will Mayfield College were opened Tuesday Morning and a large enrollment of young men and ladies entered and others are to enter in a short time. The school has never had brighter prospects in its history.

As immense crowd of democrats from all parts of the state, gathered at Springfield last Thursday to attend the opening of the campaign. We have arranged to give our readers the speeches made by Mr. Folk and Mr. Bryan on that occasion.

A sermon is contained in the following from the Southeast Texan: After all, dear readers, we are just a band of brothers here on earth, traveling along from the cradle to the grave with trials and temptations; hopes and fears, joys and headaches, smiles and tears, that are common. We are here without our consent, we will leave without it. At best, life is short, and we get out of it a full measure of sorrow. Therefore, in the struggles for place and position, in battles for bread and gold, let us be ever kind and generous. A fortune bought with the grief and overthrow of others is a curse. An office won on a field of dishonesty is a disgrace. Let energy and power lift you up to the mountain of success.

Kurre—Cook Nuptials.

Last Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Lillie May Kurre to Robert Lee Cook took place at the bride's home, Rev. E. Miller officiating.

Miss Kurre has made her home with her uncle, T. B. Drum, in Sedgewickville, for some years. She is a noble young lady, much loved by all who know her.

Mr. Cook is a prosperous young man, much admired for his many traits of character and disposition.

After the ceremony the wedding party attended church, after which an elegant dinner was served, showing that much time and attention had been given to the culinary preparations.

The young couple left Monday morning for St. Louis where they will visit the World's Fair, after which they will return to Patton where they will reside.

A FRIEND.

(A long list of relatives and friends is given in the report as being present, which our limited space will not allow us to publish, but we wish the young couple all kinds of happiness.—Ed.)

Southeast News.

Cape Girardeau had quite a blaze last Friday night. The fire originated in the rear of the Riverview hotel, which seems to have suffered most.

Fredericktown Democrat News.

For the twenty-four hours ending last Saturday night at 12 o'clock, the North American lead company broke the record; they shipped out five cars of concentrates in that period.

The dates for the fairs in the Southeast Missouri circuit are as follows: Dexter, Sept. 28 to Oct. 1; Oran, Oct. 5 to 8; Cape Girardeau, Oct. 12 to 15; Kennett, Oct. 19 to 22; Caruthersville, Oct. 20 to 24.

O. P. McCarver, who shot and killed Harry Lett on November 14, 1903, was tried at Farmington last week, the jury returning a verdict of murder in the first degree. He asked for a new trial and if it is refused the case will go to the Supreme court, say the papers.

Farmington News.

Dr. Witner and M. P. Caeye on Monday let the contract for the foundation of the new hospital building to J. W. McCarthy for $4200.

The letting of the contract for the building was deferred until the regular meeting of the board on next Monday. Senator Hohenschild also attended the meeting last Monday.

The safe of the postoffice at Piedmont was blown open the night of August 29, and robbed about $200 in cash and over $500 in stamps, says the Piedmont Banner. This is the second time the Piedmont postoffice has been robbed in a few weeks, and there is no clue to the perpetrators. The authorities believe there is an organized gang at work, and they are credited with robbing the postoffice at Poplar Bluff on the night of August 28.

Oran Citizen.

The republicans of this Senatorial district met at Sikeston last Saturday and nominated Joe W. Moore, one of the former editors of the Sikeston Democrat, and a leading attorney of that town, as the man to try and defeat the democratic nominee, Joe W. Farris. Since it is a well known fact that Moore has the ability to represent the district, and the fact that he is known as a great temperance agitator (?) we predict that he will receive a large vote.

Our Correspondents.

Huskey.

Farmers are busy plowing and preparing their ground for wheat. Rev. Baker, assisted by Rev. Lincoln, preached an interesting sermon to an appreciative congregation at Locust Grove Sunday.

Miss Nellie Huskey was on the sick list last week.

Miss Jellie Hendrix, who has been visiting relatives and friends here this summer, returned to her home in Indian Territory recently.

Her sister, Mrs. C. M. Lessley and daughter, Ava, accompanied her to St. Louis and will visit the fair before returning.

F. Brands is visiting the World's Fair this week.

H. Smith painted the windows of the church last week.

Miss Sina Elfrink is on the sick list.

Henry Berry, who has been laid up for some time, suffering from injuries received in a difficulty at Lufkin some time ago, was in Leopold last Thursday.

Mrs. J. Lawrence is sick—confined to her bed this week.

The threshing machines all found their sheds last week. Now the farmers are preparing to have something for them to do next year.

Mrs. H. Tenholder and her son, John, returned home last Thursday after a visit to the World's Fair.

Henry Dierken, Our clever cigar manufacturer, has sold his business to M. Seiler.

Fred Buckner of Lufkin was in town one day last week.

Mrs. H. Hebenstreit is reported quite ill.

J. Tenholder and Miss M. Tenholder returned to Leopold after visiting relatives and friends in St. Louis and O'Fallon.

Wm. Price, who has had employment on the railroad some time, came home last week.

We had a fine rain last Friday evening.

HERMIGILL.

Glen Allen.

Not having seen any news in The Press from our community lately, we will give a few items, to let our friends know that Glen Allen still occupies a conspicuous place on the map of the world; and to drop out of existence is the very last thing we intend to do.

Our general merchant, Peter Peak, has been in bad health for some time. His many friends hope for his early recovery.

Adolphus Limbaugh, son of our ex-collector, Moses Limbaugh is here from Colorado, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. L. speaks very flatteringly of Colorado, their new home, but he has that yearning feeling for the friends of old long since.

Messrs Orville and Rufus Zimmerman spent a week at the Great Fair. They report an enjoyable time, and think all young people who possibly can, should take advantage of this opportunity to see all the world in a nut shell.

Mrs. Hope Bess is visiting her sister, Mrs. Agnes Burns.

Marion Drum and family have moved back to their farm on Hurricane.

We are all seeing the beautiful fruits of the local option law. We haven't seen a man or boy under the influence of whisky since the election. Before, it was no novelty, we assure you.

Glen Allen public school opened Monday, with Mr. Rufus Zimmerman as teacher.

Several families in this community will attend the "Whitener" reunion, barbecue and picnic at Marquand Thursday. No doubt, it will be an interesting occasion. There will be several novel features to the picnic.

Miss Della Rhodes has been visiting relatives at Marquand recently.

Our farmers nearly all have their wheat ground prepared for the next crop.

We are enthusiastically for Folk and honest government in these parts—irrespective of party, race or color.

And, say! have you all seen the new star yet? AUNT SAMATHA.

(Now "Aunt Samantha," we appreciate your nice, newsy communication very much, and would be glad to hear from you again, and often.—Ed.)

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE

Theodore's Black-Draught comes nearer regulating the entire system and keeping the body in health than any other medicine made. It is always ready in any emergency to treat ailments that are frequent in any family, such as indigestion, biliousness, colds, diarrhoea, and stomach aches.

Theodore's Black-Draught is the standard, never-failing remedy for stomach, bowel, liver and kidney troubles. It is a cure for the domestic ills which so frequently summon the doctor. It is as good for children as it is for grown persons. A dose of this medicine every day will soon cure the most obstinate case of dyspepsia or constipation, and when taken as directed brings quick relief.

DANVILLE, ILL., Dec. 24, 1902.

Theodore's Black-Draught has been our family doctor for five years and we would not take a dose and are all right in twelve hours. We have spent lots of money for doctor bills, but not alone last as well with Black-Draught. J. H. RADER.

Ask your dealer for a package of Theodore's Black-Draught and if he does not keep it send 2c. to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed to you.
